Sunshine Advocate

1956 - Killed near own home - Farquahar Alexander McKenzie, Aged 75

1th May 1956 Page 1

Killed Near Own Home

Knocked from his bicycle by a motor cycle outside his home in Forrest St., Sunshine, last Friday, Mr. Farquahar Alexander McKenzie sustained injuries from which he later died at Footscray Hospital.

The late Mr. McKenzie was well-known in Sunshine and was an elder of the Presbyterian Church for many years. He originally came from Lismore and had resided in Sunshine for 10 years.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters and a son. One of his daughters is Ilma Mc-Kenzie, the concert pianiste.

The runeral took place to the Cressy Cemetery on Tuesday after a service at the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. F. Sadler conducted the services at both the Church and the cemetery.