

FIRE AT MAIDSTONE.

The Fire Brigade received a call about 10 a.m. on Thursday morning to Sussex street, Maidstone, where a four-roomed weatherboard house, with contents, was severely damaged by fire. The owner and occupier was Mr. J. C. Richardson. The dwelling was insured with the Australian Mutual Insurance Co. for £600; and the contents with the Colonial Mutual for £300.