Hundreds See Result of Fatal Smash

Hundreds of local people attended the scene of a smash at the corner of Devonshire and Cornwall Roads on Sunday afternoon, when a young woman was killed.

The dead woman was Allison Frances Braybrook, 26, of Hotham Street, Seddon. The car was driven by Alan Braybrook, of the same address.

Mrs. Daphne Naley, 42, of Essex Street, West Footscray, drove the other car.

Noise of the crash brought nearby residents to the street, and it was not long before a big crowd had assembled. A mobile police party from the city was soon on the scene, and an ambulance, and those concerned were conveyed to Footscray District Hospital.
