Sunshine Advocate

One-man brigade out fire out, Barclay Dry Cleaners, Sun Cres

26th March 1959 Page 1

ONE-MAN BRIGADE PUT FIRE OUT

When a fire broke out on Monday evening at the rear of Barclay Dry Cleaners, Sun Cr., Sunshine, the prompt action of Mr. Fred Clayton prevented extensive damage.

Mr. Clayton, who lives nearby, ran first to the police station opposite to send a fire call, then back to the fire, and had it under control when the brigade arrived.

Underground oil tanks at the rear of the premises might have proved dangerous.