

Around the Town

Mrs Harold Boorer, of Sunshine, who plays at Medway, won the B grade Victorian Golf League Associates' Championship at Brighton last week. Her husband won the Medway club's G grade title in 1938. This year another Sunshine resident, Mr M. Lorenz, the local stationmaster, won the same title.

On Tuesday, the members of the Toorak Presbyterian choir will give a grand concert in the Sunshine Presbyterian hall. The program will be provided by talented artists and will include quartettes, songs and humorous items. The contributing performers will be Messrs F. Taplin, Sid Stewart, White, and Misses A. Summers, G. Martin and L. Hillburn. The choirmaster is Mr Jas M. Hudson.

The Sunshine Horticultural Society will hold its annual spring display in the supper room of the Town Hall on Thursday next. Owing to the splendid season the exhibits should be well worth an inspection and the public is invited. Entries, which are limited to residents of the western suburbs, close on the evening of the display with the secretary (Cr J. R. Parsons), from whom schedules can be obtained.

At a conference on Wednesday between the Trades Hall disputes committee and representatives of the unions concerned in the dispute affecting 500 workers at the explosive works at Deer Park, it was agreed to seek another conference with the management as soon as possible. The Ammunition Workers' Union is claiming a flat weekly wage of £5/10/ for men and women.

Union is claiming a new weekly wage of £5/10/ for men and women, a danger risk rate of £1/5/, and the abolition of piece work.

During the week, Mr J. L. Scott, J.P., handed over to the local branch, on behalf of his daughter (Mrs Vernon Wilkinson, of Ivanhoe) a Red Cross flag that was used in Sunshine during the last war. The committee appreciates the kindly action of Mrs Wilkinson.

Mr Jack Coakes, 61 years, of Derby Road, received a fractured leg when he was struck by a wheel that slipped from the rope of a crane at the Sunshine Harvester Works yesterday morning. He was admitted to the Melbourne Hospital. Another employee, Percy Naylor, of Newport, was also injured and detained at the Melbourne Hospital for observation suffering from lacerations and a possible fracture of the skull.

Mr Charles Whiting, J.P., treasurer of the Sunshine Dispensary, and president of the Albion Progress Association, broke his wrist a few days ago when cranking his car, preparatory to going to work after being away at the M.U.I.O.O.F. conference at Horsham.

Mr Stuart Ross, of Dickson Street, won the competition conducted by the Sunshine Band for a suit or costume. The number was 202.

On Sunday last a fire occurred at the rear of Mr R. Clinnick's residence, Durham Road, Sunshine. The dwelling escaped, but all out-houses and contents were destroyed. Both Sunshine and Footscray brigades were called to subdue the blaze.

The students of the Sunshine Technical School collected 48 dozen eggs this year for the Melbourne eggs this year for the Melbourne

Hospital and the Berry Street
Foundling Home, East Melbourne.

National Library of Australia

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article74741370>