Sunshine Advocate

Train killed woman at Tottenham, Maria Petronella 'Mary' Wyma, Aged 33

2nd June 1960 Page 2

TRAIN KILLS WOMAN

Mrs. Mary Wyma, 33 years, of Ivanhoe Av., St. Albans, was killed by a train at Tottenham station on Tuesday evening as she was crossing from one platform to another.

She was the mother of two small children.

Mrs. Wyma had bought a ticket for Sunshine at the station's only ticket box on the "up" platform. She had to go to the opposite platform to catch her train.

But instead of crossing by the pedestrian gates, she attempted to cross the pit and was struck by a Melbourne-bound train.