

Sunshine Advocate

Woman victim, Olive Hammond, Aged 56

Sunshine Advocate 5th December 1973 Page 4

Youth dies when car rolls in early morning accident

A 19-year-old youth died in an early morning accident on the Keilor-Melton Rd. near Sydenham early on Sunday.

The accident, between 1 and 2 am, occurred when a car

Scouts on visit

MORE than 40 members of Sunshine's Venture Scouts Units paid a visit to Parliament House recently.

The visit followed a talk on the State Government by local MP Mr. John Giniifer.

The boys visited both the Upper and the lower house and later enjoyed supper as the guests of Mr. Giniifer and other local MP's Bon Thomas and Alec Knight.

driven by another 19-year-old youth overturned.

He was Mervyn Charles Willis, a member of a Gippsland family who lived in Fox St., St. Albans.

Willis, who was a passenger in the car, was dead on arrival at the Melton Hospital.

The other youth, the only other person in the car, was treated for minor head injuries.

The victim was one of five children of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Willis, of Newry, in the Maffra district of Gippsland.

The funeral was held at Newry, with a service in the local Presbyterian Church.

FATAL

In another accident which occurred at North Melbourne at about 12.15 am. on Sunday, Mrs. Olive Hammond, 56, of South Rd., Braybrook, sustained fatal injuries.

Mrs. Hammond was a passenger in a car which collided with another car. She was the only person to sustain serious injuries. Mrs. Hammond was the widow of the late Mrs Hammond was the widow of the late Mr. Roy Hammond. She is survived by four children.

She lived at Middle Footscray.

K. C. McLennan

(R. T. Loufit)

Optometrist and Optician

6a CLARK
STREET,
SUNSHINE

HOURS:

9 am. to 5.30 pm. week-
days;
8.45 am. to 11.45 am. Saturdays. Phone 311 2134

RECEPTIONS

- ★ Weddings of Distinction
- ★ Company Conferences