Sunshine Advocate

A day of tragedy, Frederick Marshall, Charles Emmins & Alfred Andre Bobek

14th January 1965 Page 1

Christmas Day was a day of tragedy on the roads for three separate fatalities occurred in this district.

Frederick Marshall, 35 years, of McLennan Street, Braybrook, was apparently the victim of a hit-andrun driver for he was found dead in South Road, Braybrook, near Banks St. early on Christmas Day.

In a two-car collision at the corner of Monash St. and Cornwall Rd. in the early evening, Charles Emmins, 51 years, of Gore St., Fitzroy, was fatally injured.

Others injured in the accident were Thomas Anastisios and Perry Anastisios both of 209 Glengala Rd., Sunshine, and Cameron Cooper, Newell St., Footscray.

Alfred Bobek, Glendenning Street, St. Albans, was killed when a car ran off the road at Taylor's Road and Green Gully, St. Albans and overturned.

Injured were George Wenzler, Charles Street, St. Albans, Stefan Launikonis, North Road, St. Albans, and Gerhardt Haumann, Alfrieda Street, St. Albans.