

THE MAIDSTONE FIRE

DEATH OF MRS. BRUNDELL.

After having been carefully attended to by Dr. McCarthy, of Postcray, Mrs. Brundell, who was so terribly injured in a fire which occurred at her residence, Maidstone, near Braybrook, last evening, was taken to the Melbourne Hospital about midnight. Everything possible was done for the unfortunate sufferer, but without avail, as she expired at four o'clock this morning. An inquest will be held.
