

Sunshine Advocate

Factory fire, Wiltshire Files

24th January 1957 Page 2

Factory Fire

A fire, presumably caused by metallic sparks, started on Monday evening at the Wiltshire File company's works, Sunshine Road. Damage was caused in the carpenter's shop on the ground floor to walls, a profile plant and circular saw. The outbreak was brought under control by automatic and chemical hand extinguishers.
