

Sunshine Advocate

Albion family in tragic smash, Mollie Planche, Aged 36

5th September 1957 Page 4

Albion Family in Tragic Smash

Mrs. Mollie Planche, 36, of Barclay Street, Albion, was killed on Saturday night last in a motor smash in Ballarat Road, Rockbank.

Her husband, Percival Planche, received serious head injuries and shock. He is still in hospital.

Two of the three children in the family were also seriously injured. Gail, 12 months, received a fractured skull and Heather 5, fractured legs and head injuries.

The third child, Geoffrey, was less seriously hurt.

In the other vehicle were three Western District residents, Jack McCallum, of Wallacedale, Norman and James Robertson, both of Condah Swamp. None of the three was seriously injured.