

GRASS FIRE AT BROOKLYN

Sunshine fire brigade answered a call this week to a grass fire in a paddock at Somerville Road, Brooklyn. There was an abundance of dry grass which had not been eaten off since last summer, and about three acres were burned out before the fire was extinguished by the brigade with beaters and hand-pump. It is believed the outbreak was caused by some youth who had been rabbiting.