

Boy, 2, toddles off to death

Two-year-old Paul McDonald Foley, of Ridley st., Sunshine, toddled off to his death yesterday morning.

He had been holidaying with his mother and was playing with other children on the property of Mr. J. K. Stewart at Londrigan, near Wangaratta.

Mr. Stewart found his body in a foot of water in the backwaters of a small creek which runs through the property.

Big wash-up

More than 30,000 men have entered a new competition in West Germany — to decide the DISH-WASHING champion! A detergent firm, which launched the campaign to encourage men to help women in the house, is running the contest. — A.A.P.-Reutr's.

There is a detour from Orbest along Boni Highway, through Bonala, according to Country Roads Board advice.

Science school

A new £20,000 science school was opened at Carey Baptist Grammar School on Saturday. The new building is the latest in science schools, and includes a meteorological station on the top storey.

Highway cut

Princes Highway is closed to traffic at Cunn River through local flooding.

There is a detour from Orbest along Bonang

National Library of Australia

<http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article71808170>