

THROWN FROM A HORSE.

Another accident, which occurred on the 7th inst. at Keilor, terminated fatally yesterday. Two brothers, named Peter and William Harrich, were riding towards their father's residence, when on approaching Springfield Hill Peter Harrich was thrown from his horse, his head striking the roadway heavily. He was picked up and taken to his home, where he subsequently died. Harrich was a single man, 29 years old, and was thoroughly acquainted with horses. An inquest will be held.
