

FIRE.—An inquest was held on Monday, at the Braybrook Hotel, before Dr. D. P. M'Lean, coroner of the district, relative to the fire which occurred at the Albion Common School. After hearing evidence, the jury returned the following verdict:—"That the Albion Common School, at Braybrook, was destroyed by fire on the morning of 30th July, 1868, at about three a.m., how or by what means there is no evidence to show."
