

Sunshine Advocate

Truck kills small boy, Robert Stangstons, Aged 5

103^h December 1956 Page s1

Truck Kills Small Boy

A five-year-old boy was run over and killed by a truck at St. Albans on Friday last.

And not even the truck driver knew anything had occurred until the child's body was seen on the roadway.

The boy was Raymond Stangstons, of 84 Biggs Street.

The truck was driven by L. J. J. Milsome, 2 Walmer Avenue, St. Albans and was being used for road work in Biggs Street.

Mr. Milsome said he had dumped a load of metal and had driven over the uneven road surface for about 50 yards at about two miles an hour to pick up more material.

He saw no children on the roadway and could offer no theory as to how the child could have been run over.
