

FATALITY AT BRAYBROOK.

An accident happened at the explosive works, Deer Park, Braybrook, on Wednesday, which resulted in the death of George Lightfoot, aged 62, an engine driver at the works. Mr. Lightfoot was in the act of oiling some of the machinery, when he was caught and drawn into it, receiving such severe injuries that he died at the Melbourne Hospital early yesterday morning. An inquest is to be held to-day.