

A FIRE took place on Friday night at Braybrook, by which the house of Mr Kells, and the greater part of the furniture were destroyed. The property was not insured. Nobody seems to know how the fire originated.