

FATAL ACCIDENT.

On Thursday last two lads, named Michael and Patrick Fox, who reside with their father, Michael Fox, at Kellor, were at work in the garden, when they commenced to wrestle. The younger boy, Patrick, threw his brother Michael, who fell on a spade on his abdomen, and immediately went off in a faint and about 8 o'clock on Friday morning died. The coroner being unable to attend, a magisterial enquiry was held on Saturday, before Mr Taylor, J.P., when a verdict was returned that death was caused from internal injuries accidentally received. Deceased was only eleven years and nine months old, his brother, who was the unfortunate cause of his death, being only ten years and six months.
